

Killer whales

Orcas

blubber fat keep them warm they eat prey they feed to death eat blue whales
eat a small school of fish
have a whistling sound

are related to the dolphins 57 long sharp teeth
34k

Pings

pod

Bubbles

Big

fat

largest sea crasher

Taylor

Report Planner

Taylor 4P

Classification and definition:	Killer whale ✓
Category 1: (e.g. Physical appearance)	a long fin black white ✓
Category 2: (e.g. Life cycle)
Category 3: (e.g. Habitat)	cold waters warm waters ✓
Category 4: (e.g. Predators and prey)	Blue whales fish ✓
Other interesting facts about the topic.	big fat large Pings pod 10 metres ✓ 10,000 kg ✓

Taylor

Killer whale - Ocra

The Killer whale is called the ocra.

The Killer whale is in the dolphin family.

The Killer whale has a long fin.

It has a black back and a white tummy.

The Killer whales live in cold waters.
It lives warm waters too.

The Killer whales bite their prey to lose their blood then they die to eat them.

The Killer is 10,000 kg and 10 metres.
The Killer is the largest whale in the world.